DEPARTMENT OF JUSTICE

Attorney General Herbert Brownell, Jr. announced today that he has designated as subversive 20 organizations which failed to file proper notices of contest after receiving official notification of proposed designation.

Mr. Brownell notified the heads of the Departments and Agencies of the designations for their guidance in carrying out the Federal Employee Security Program.

At the same time, he redesignated as subversive the Nationalist Party of Puerto Rico which had previously been so designated in the former Employee Loyalty Program.

In all, 62 organizations were sent notices of proposed designation. Of these, 19 have filed proper notices of contest, and statements of grounds and interrogatories have either been sent to these organizations or are in the process of preparation by the Department of Justice.

An additional 23 notices by registered mail to 23 organizations were returned unclaimed. In keeping with the rules of procedure, a memorandum giving further notice by publication in the Federal Register has been prepared. These organizations will have 30 days after publication in which to file notice of contest or, in case of default, be designated as subversive.
